

World Cup Sweepstake

Excited for the World Cup? Make watching the action even more fun by holding a sweepstake with your teams and raise vital funds for Naomi House & Jacksplace.

How to play

Cut out all of the countries provided and ask your colleagues to draw a team out of a hat.

Keep track of everyone's choice on the poster provided. After the final, present the winner with a portion of the winnings (you decide how much) and then contact us on partnerships@naomihouse.org.uk to donate the rest.

Not enough or too many?

Don't worry! If you don't have enough staff members, ask your colleagues to buy multiple teams or if you are a large office, create mini sweepstakes per department or team.

Can you take it one step further?

We've got some great ideas to help make your World Cup Sweepstake a footie fundraiser to remember...

- Represent your country by wearing their colours when they are playing.
- Bring in food which originates from your country for your colleagues. We have attached a fixture list so that you know when your team is playing!
- Ask your boss nicely if they might play the matches live in your office

World Cup screening

Organise a World Cup screening at your office and ask for an entry donation to watch.

Wear your kit to work day

For a donation, allow your team to wear their team's colours to work for the day.

Can your business match fund the total winnings to make even more of a difference at Naomi House & Jacksplace?

Did you know

Based on a £5 stake and 32 teams, with the full amount you could help fund 7 hours of nursing care for our children and young adults. Thank you!
